

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY AND INFORMATION ASSURANCE

M-Tech supports Information Technology and Information Assurance efforts through Risk Management Framework (RMF) implementation. We perform a wide-range of IT and IA support services, including: information architecture planning and management, enterprise information management implementation. We also support program office implementation of cyber security requirements into complex weapons programs.

Critical areas of expertise:

- Information architecture development and implementation
 - DoD network vulnerability management
 - DoD Information Assurance Certification and Accreditation Process (DIACAP) Support
 - Network encryption support
-